Adventure Theater Recap: Episode #2

Al-x and his friends talk about the Big Annual Fishing Derby coming up and what a big deal it is for cavemen to be the best at fishing. Al-x remembers how he used to go fishing with his dad. Everyday his dad would take him and his friends to the Quarry Rock fishing pond to practice fishing. Everyone else got fish, but Alex never did. Make a really big deal out of Al-x never getting a fish, EVER! (For some reason the kids really identified with this and the more we emphasized it, the more into the story they got.)

1. Greetings

Champions! Roll Call then immediately go into review without explanation. Just go right into it with high energy. Show students what to do, don't tell.

BONUS

BONUS: Chameleons

Discuss how chameleons change their color depending on what they're around. Share that people can be like that too...not our skin changing, but how we act can change. It's easy to conform to those you spend the most time around. Ask yourself:

- "How do my friends affect me?"
- Do they influence me for the better, or for the worse?"
- "Do my friends make good choices, or not very good choices?"
- Do I want to act like them?"

LESSON

2. Video: Leadership Workshop Dino-Dough!

You can even make Dino-Dough in class for a fun activity.

WORKBOOK

3. Leadership Workbook:

Pages 12-13 – Conformity.

Don't be a chameleon-copy-cat!

CHAMP CHAT

4. Champ Chat:

- Do you act differently around certain people?
- What is an example of good conformity?
- What is an example of bad conformity?
- How can you tell the difference?

CHALLENGE

5. Leadership Challenge: The Dino-Dough

Encourage students to make Dino-Dough at home and share with their parents what they learned about copying others. When is it good, and when is it bad?
